

Matthew Kaye
kayem@carleton.edu
(646) 853-5997
263 W Hyerdale Drive, Goshen, CT 06756

| | | |
|-------------------|--|---|
| EDUCATION | Carleton College , Northfield, MN BA, Economics, Mathematics. GPA: 3.63 Relevant Coursework in Economics: Econometrics, Intermediate Microeconomics, Intermediate Macroeconomics, Labor Economics, Advanced Research in Economics, Advanced Seminar in Applied Microeconomics, Senior Thesis in Urban Economics Relevant Technical Coursework: Data Structures, Algorithms & Advanced Algorithms, Mathematical Statistics, Bayesian Statistics, Real Analysis | September 2016 - Present Expected Jan 2020 |
| | Choate Rosemary Hall , Wallingford, CT | September 2013 - June 2016 |
| EXPERIENCE | Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis Incoming Research Intern | Summer 2019 |
| | Carleton College Statistics Lab Assistant <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Help Carleton students master material in introductory statistics, probability, mathematical statistics, and regression courses• Help statistics students understand and debug R code | September 2018 - June 2019 |
| | Carleton College Math Skills Center Tutor <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Help Carleton students master material in introductory calculus, linear algebra, mathematical structures, and statistics courses• Work with Carleton students who need extra attention in one-on-one sessions | September 2017 - June 2019 |
| | Northfield Information Services Real Estate Risk and Research Intern <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Collected and formatted data to create a database of employment, rent, and risk exposures• Built models for use in Northfield's illiquid asset risk models to better understand and predict real estate risk• Built a database of generic property types for Northfield clients with real estate in their portfolios | Summers 2017 and 2018 |
| SKILLS | Technological: Excel, Java, LaTeX, Python, R, SQL Language: Non-native fluency in Spanish | |
| INTERESTS | Baseball, reading, chess, skiing, economics, politics and public policy | |